Dear Parents,

Greetings for the day!

We are happy to inform you that a Parent Workshop & PTM for Pre-Primary Oaklite Parents will be conducted to support parents in nurturing their child's early learning and overall development. The workshop aims to help parents understand how learning at this stage goes beyond books and focuses on building strong foundations.

Workshop Details:

Date : Friday, 30th January 2026

Time : 2:00 pm – 3:00 pm

Venue : ELGA Room

Highlights of the Workshop:

- Understanding early learning and how young children learn best
- The importance of parental involvement, guidance, and encouragement
- Developing basic skills such as listening, speaking, fine motor skills, and social behaviour
- Reducing pressure on children and avoiding rote learning at an early age
- Supporting children with simple home activities instead of heavy homework
- The role of regular attendance in building routine and confidence
- Focusing on holistic development – emotional, social, physical, and cognitive growth
- Understanding the difference between observation-based assessment and formal exams
- Building good habits, discipline, and time management, which begin at home

The session will also highlight how parents play a key role in shaping discipline, routine, and positive behaviour, which strongly influence a child's readiness for future learning.

Important Instructions for Parents:

- Kindly register at the entrance of the Training Hall on arrival.
- Please ensure that you are seated by 1:50 p.m., as the session will begin promptly at 2:00 p.m.
- Report Cards distribution will be held after completion of work shop.
- Your cooperation in maintaining time discipline will help us conduct the session smoothly.

We strongly encourage all Pre-Primary parents to attend this interactive session, as working together will help us provide a joyful, stress-free, and meaningful learning experience for our little ones.

We look forward to your presence and participation.

Regards,
Principal.
